

Uniapac

Faith-based Entrepreneurs: Stronger Together International Networking Conference

The Responsibility of Christian Entrepreneurs “The Company”

Geneva, 22-23 January 2018

Rodrigo Whitelaw

The Responsibility of Christian Entrepreneurs “The Company” I

- 1) Seeking and implementing the Kingdom of God inside and outside the Company.
 - The basic principle that God created as a gift to be enjoyed by all: the Common Good
 - Fostering and endangering the business contribution to the Common Good and Human Dignity
- 2) Integrity : The character of God. Trust building way of being truth to yourself.
- 3) Loving your neighbour
- 4) Continuing formation process
- 5) Mutuality: Sharing benefits of growth among stakeholders.

The Responsibility of Christian Entrepreneurs “ The Company” II

7) Stewardship: Responsible care of the wealth entrusted to God to us.

Intrinsic value of Work.

- ▶ As a condition of human dignity, labour being an essential means of human fulfilment and contribution to the common good,
- ▶ Produce good and services needed by man,
- ▶ Produce wealth to share it with others,
- ▶ Allow a lot more people access to what fulfils them,
- ▶ Helping the less fortunate, the work of the Church.

8) Social and environmental responsibility: take care of our Common Home.

9) Transparency in internal and external relations of the Company